Prelude: Betsy Wagner

Welcome and Church Life Rev. Liz Jensen

* Call to Worship (based on Colossians 3:1-11)

Pastor: Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits at God's right hand in the place of honor and power.

People: Let heaven fill your thoughts. Do not think only about things down here on earth.

Pastor: For you died when Christ died, and your real life is hidden with Christ in God.

People: And when Christ, who is your real life, is revealed to the whole world, you will share in all his glory.

Pastor: So put to death the sinful, earthly things lurking within you.

People: In its place you have clothed yourselves with a brand-new nature that is continually being renewed as you learn more and more about Christ, who created this new nature within you.

Pastor: In this new life, it doesn't matter if you are a Jew or a Gentile, slave, or free.

People: Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us.

SCRIPTURE READING

Luke 12:13-21

Then someone called from the crowd, "Teacher, please tell my brother to divide our father's estate with me."

Jesus replied, "Friend, who made me a judge over you to decide such things as that?" Then he said, "Beware! Don't be greedy for what you don't have. Real life is not measured by how much we own." And he gave an illustration:

"A rich man had a fertile farm that produced fine crops. In fact, his barns were full to overflowing. So he said, 'I know! I'll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I'll have room enough to store everything. And I'll sit back and say to myself, My friend, you have enough stored away for years to come. Now take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry!'

"But God said to him, 'You fool! You will die this very night. Then who will get it all?'

"Yes, a person is a fool to store up earthly wealth but not have a rich relationship with God."
